

Shawn D. Skillin, Esq. is on NCRC's Divorce Mediation Panel.

Ms. Skillin, an experienced family law mediator, has been a practicing family law attorney for more than 10 years. She also provides collaborative divorce services. In addition, she has been appointed by the Court to represent children in difficult divorce cases. With her background as a critical care nurse she is adept at dealing with families in crisis. This background, as well as her additional training in mediation and collaborative divorce, enables her to assist mediation clients in navigating through the complex issues faced in the divorce process.
