

Mediator Biographical Information

KATHERINE JANE MORRIS

Katherine has management level experience in both public and private sectors and has worked as a mediator since 1986.

MEDIATION TRAINING

San Diego Mediation Center, Introductory Mediation Skills, 25 hours, 1986

San Diego Mediation Center, ongoing skill-building workshops, on a variety of topics, 40 hours

United States Postal Service, REDRESS Program, EEOC/ADEA Transformative Mediation, 20 hours, 1998

Center for Municipal Dispute Resolution, Large and Small Groups/Issues involving City/County Municipal Codes/government agencies, 36 hours

National Center for Dispute Settlement, Lemon Law/New Home construction, ongoing skill-building workshops and training advisory sheet, 80 hours

MEDIATION EXPERIENCE/EXPERTISE IN THE FOLLOWING AREAS

General	Employment/Labor Relations	Partnership
Automobile/Lemon Law	Government/Public Agency	Personal Injury
Business/Contract	Insurance	Motor Vehicle Accident
Community/Neighborhood	Landlord/Tenant	Property Damage
Construction

She has mediated over 200 cases involving issues listed above as well as multi-party, large dollar cases. Also, she has worked with large groups, business and family issues.

EDUCATION

University of Texas, M.A., Contemporary U.S. History, 1968

Stetson University, B.A., History, 1967

ORGANIZATIONS AND AFFILIATIONS

San Diego Superior Court Civil Mediation Pilot Program Panel, 1990-present; San Diego Mediation Center Panel, 1986-Present; United States Postal Service REDRESS Program Panel, 1998-Present; Center for Municipal Dispute Resolution Panel, 1989-1995; State of California, Department of Industrial Relations, State mediation and Conciliation Service, 1994-Present; National Center for Dispute Settlement, 1986-Present; National Association of Securities Dealers Panel, 1997-Present; Los Angeles Superior Court Mediation Panel, 2001-Present

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Katherine works primarily as an independent contractor providing mediation and arbitration services to a number of local, state and national agencies. She has additional experience as a trainer in both mediation and arbitration.